"LET US HAVE PEACE"

"Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war."
"To the victors belong the spoils."

To our customers belong the profits this week. We have met the enemy and we've got 'em.

WE HAVE SILENCED THE FORCES of high prices with the bargains we sold to the trade. Our figures, at all times the LOWEST, now knock all the rest in the shade.

From our dress goods may yet be selected some choice things in hot weather stuff, on which we won't quote any prices, though others do that for a bluff. These goods you can have as you wish them, yourself make the prices to suit. And when you have spent a few dollars you get a fine picture to boot.

We are selling the handsome DRESS SKIRTS, ever sold in this end of the state, for less than the goods can be bought at, all home made and right up to date.

Our LADIES WEAR please the latest, and looks lovely on creatures less fair; Our styles, which are ever the latest, "are charming," fair women declare. And the men folks never forget us, when needing NICE SHIRTS and FINE SHOES. They know we keep the assortment from which they can easily choose.

Our SHOES are the best and cheapest on top of the earth—or below—and every last pair is as "solid" as the rocks in the Fort of Morro. You may fancy this quite out of reason, but a trial will prove it is true. Stop to wind up for the season, FORTY CENTS buys a LOW-QUARTER SHOE.

IN GAITHERS and BUTTONS and LACES we can fit every foot to a "T." "Consigne George, how dainty your feet look!" "I wear Dorcas's shoes—don't you see?"

Rich people are pleased with the beauty of our LINENS, LACK CURTAINS and RUGS, and other folks think it a duty to follow the taste of "big bugs."

Our trade is increasing and healthy—our prices creating a mass; we hold fast the trade of the wealthy, and "the poor we have always with us."

Our PICTURES—the gems of the season—are in every "sweet home" ought to be, when just for a few dollars' purchase, you're welcome to some of them free.

All will admit the above contains "more truth than poetry." Everybody come to this wondrous sale of the season.

JOHN J. DORIAN,
NO. 205 BROADWAY, - PADUCAH, KY.

PAPER STYLES.

There are styles in wall paper, some as in hats or shoes. The wall paper which best suits your taste is the one you like best. It is a question of taste, not of price. It is a question of taste, not of price. It is a question of taste, not of price.

As soon as possible they crowded on the ferry boat, and when they left, it was a mass of mud and water from one end to the other, such was the plight of the pioneers.

The rain on this side was not so bad.

Yesterday afternoon a heavy rain broke up festivities over at the barbecue and picnic on the Illinois shore. The crowds had no shelter except the scant covering afforded by the trees, and were in a short time completely soaked.
